Emergency Coverage

Law enforcement personnel are stretched during emergencies and natural disasters, which means protecting your business and facilities may be further down their list than you'd like.

Off Duty Services provides off duty law enforcement officers when and where you need them most.

We draw from our North American database to bring in officers at a moment's notice, often from outside the effected area—which is typically required during wide-ranging hurricanes or tropical storms.

Response to natural disasters or man-made emergencies is not a unique occurrence for Off Duty Services, it's our routine service.

Our processes, supervision and technologies are designed for the high-stress, time-pressed law enforcement needs of clients during emergencies.

Single Point of Contact at All Times

Through our Single Point of Contact clients receive timely communication and coordination of all protection activities before, during and after an emergency event.

Off Duty Services' standard protocol is 24 X 7, 365 days a year availability of our supervisors and management team. This means clients can focus on other pressing needs knowing law enforcement is being handled by our professionals.

Be ahead of the curve, prearrange emergency coverage by contacting our business development group at 281-346-2188, or by email at information@offdutyservices.com
